

bill until March the 4th?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Right.

SENATOR HABERMAN: That's fine.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay. No objections? So ordered. Move on to LB 213.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 213 offered by Senator Wesely. (Read title.) The bill was read on January 15, referred to Business and Labor, was advanced to General File. I have Business and Labor Committee amendments pending, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Barrett, are you going to take those committee amendments? I don't see Senator Barrett. Senator Wesely, did you wish to take them?

SENATOR WESELY: I could do that if you'd like.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, go ahead then.

SENATOR WESELY: The amendments to LB 213 reflect the fact, and I do serve on the Business and Labor Committee, or maybe Senator Eret who is Vice-Chairman might want to speak as well. But anyway, the bill as brought in was to reflect the language in the NLRB statutes on how you define supervisor. The bill as drafted as the bill drafter changed some of that and we decided it wasn't a good idea to change that language even though it was slight and so the committee amendment is to make it exactly the same as the NLRB language and so that is all the committee amendment does. So I would ask your support for the committee amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Any other discussion? I have some lights on. I think they have been left on so would you please turn them off. Senator Beutler, Landis and DeCamp, unless you wish to speak about our committee amendments. Okay. The question is the adoption of the committee amendments. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on the adoption of the committee amendments. Need a little help, ladies and gentlemen. We're voting on the committee amendments. Record, Mr. Clerk. Thank you.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of
